The Senior Class Will

- I, DIANNA TAYLOR, will to my sister all my shorthand notebooks, and the shorthand book with all the punctuations written in for her.
  - I, MARK DORSEY, will to Barry Keal a baseball diamond in "persic" condition.
  - I, GAYLE BROOKS, will Kay Criblez, all my Civics notes.
  - I, JIM OBENLAND, will David Henderson one used meal ticket.
  - I, CARROLL WERNIGK, will all the jokes I have forgotten to John Bruns. Have fun, John!
- I, CATHY DUDLEY, will my squeaky desk with the broken top to Sue Dorsey. I also will my abilities of getting into trouble in 9th hour study hall to Barbara Atkins.
  - I, BILL CAMP, will Ron Shafer one case of RED love savers.
- I, MAUREEN CODER, will my ability to drop the music during a solo in the Spring Concert, because of a certain trombone player to Marla Marron.
- I, LARRY CUNDIFF, will Em a pair of contact lenses so he can see the cars coming at him. I also will Wayne Wise my ability to get along with the teachers.
  - I, JANET DOWNING, will Sue Dorsey singing lessons and a new list of songs for P.E. and Home Ec.
  - I, MIKE JARVIS, will my back seat on the bus to Ron Chesnut who always manages to get put in front.

I. STAN GILDERSLEEVE, will my ability to get into trouble to Stan Frerichs.

I, MARY WISE, will and bequeath my ability to go barefoot 2nd hour to Karlene Hinrichs and Debbie Schneider.

I. NANCY JOHNSTON, will and bequeath my ability to start my own restaurant with "Borrowed" dishes to Linda Keal.

I, JACKIE RICHARDSON, will to Arthur Schluter a quiet clock for his car that won't disturb him during all of his big emergencies.

I, KATHY SHOOK, will all of the knowledge I have accumumlated in the past four years to my brothers, Carl and Randy. Use it sparingly, boys, there isn't much.

I, JANICE DUDLEY, will all my books to Sue Dorsey to go along with her squeaky desk from Cathy. Have fun, Sue!

I, KEVIN HEDRICK, will Phyllis Hedrick and Marla Swanson a new set of tinkle bells.

I, JERRY JARBOE, will my 12 years of riding the bus to anyone with a durable posterior.

I, JIM JONES, being of not too sound a mind, will and bequeath to Stan Frerichs, Jim Goldenstein, and Red Parrish my marvelous eight ball that always tells the truth. Keep it goin', boys.

I, SHERRI BEDDOE, will Phyllis Hedrick the ability not to drive into any ditches with Chew, especially with Gary and me. Watch those cars that pass on the hills!

I, KIM WILLIAMS, will all the notes I have taken in classes during the last four years to who ever makes the highest bid!

I, GREG ACTON, will my all natural ability to do nothing to Park Acton.

I, LINDA SOLOMAN, will Ron Shafer a ticket on the last train to Boswell, Indiana, and a copy of "Winchester Cathedral".

I, DIANA GREER, will to Bain Ashcraft the ability to stay up late on nights that I'm out to make sure I'm home on time!

I, DIANA HOVELN, will a new set of rules and patience to all the teachers, because they will need it next year when my red-headed sister will be a freshman. She's even worse than I am!

I, RANAE DAVIES, will Doug Jackson and Park Acton a "winker," so they won't get lonely when I'm gone.

I, PAULINE ROCKER, will Mrs. Engolf all the ANGEL food cakes in the world.

I, STEVE WILLARD, will many more fish and rabbit fries in the woods to Mike Ackerman and Mike Gordon.

I, CHERYL HEUER, will Arthur Schluter the ability to always stand by our motto, "Love'em and leave'em."

I, ANITA SCHLUTER, will my reliable watch, that gets me everywhere a half-hour late, to Gail Ramm.

I, PAM KISSACK, will Susan Cannon my seat in Danny Millis' car.

I, MARIA COX, being of sound mind, will my American History book with the answers in it to Rujean Davis, and to my sister, Carol, I will the ability to get back all the money I've lost in the pop machine.

I, HERB WOODEN, being of sound mind, hereby relinquish my great ability to play great basketball to Ed Cler.

I, SHERYL CREIGHTON, will Paul Ludwig my ability to be the quietest one on the bus, and to Ruth Ann Crowe, my ability to have fun with deodorant bottles in P.E. Class.

I, HOWARD NOBLITT, will all of the paper wads in my desk to Ron Chesnut. They are to be used in tormenting Emerson Shumate, bus driver on the Collison route.

I, DEBBIE BUCK, am willing to leave.

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS WILL . . . .

Mrs. Bauer, a typing class that can find a 60-space line without help.

Mrs. Roberts, a Typing II student that won't put a duplicating master in a typewriter backwards.

Mrs. Bachman, enough ingenuity to raise money for a trip to Spain.

Mrs. Egolf, girls who remember to have their lunch cards punched before they eat upstairs.

Mrs. Rotigel, best wishes in your new Art room where the Home Ec girls won't be messing up the projects.

Miss Townsend, a speech class that won't try to sell tomato juice or peanut butter, and a student who is quiet ALL year and not just ONE day.

Mrs. Tate, a P. E. Class that likes to do stunts and is ABLE to do them.

Mr. Bezely, some intelligent girls in Civics class and a brand new wasp-swatter.

Mr. Hulfachor, a Reminnen with a long barral.

Mr. Stuby, an apron to keep the chalk dust off his clothes.

Mr. Culp, a life-time supply of unbreakable chalk.

Mr. McCollem, seniors who know how to fill out applications.

Mr. Kidoguchi, a FAST music sorter and ensembles that want to practice.

Mr. Darrow, an Ag class that doesn't turn the intercom on.

Mr. Stagen, a private office with his name in gold on the door.

Mr. Husted, a senior class that doesn't destroy school property on initiation day.

Betty, students who don't fold, spindle, or mutilate their lunch cards.

Kenny, a busload of future seniors who act like first graders, living up to his expectations.

Lec, a heater with better controls and a gas mask for every seat.

Em, a new hunting cap and ejection seats with seat belts.

Charlie, a bus route that by-passes the Holt farm.

Cooks, kids who place the food in the right disposal containers.

School board, a class just like that of 1967!

Senior Class Prophecy

The year is now 1977, and Kevin Hedrick, 1967 graduate of that now prosperous metropolis of Armstrong, Illinois, decides to look up all of his old friends. Being a traveling toupee salesman, Kev takes a few weeks off to see them. To start his journey, we'll go to the opposite side of the world, Europe.

In Spain, Howard Noblitt is now the World Champion of that wonderful sport, PING-PONG. After her success with the mini-skirt, Kim Williams is now a famous trend-setting teacher in Liverpool, England. In Germany, Kev finds Jim Obenland as Liberace's protegé. Liberace and Jim are about to give their first jazz concert. Going off to Sweden, he finds Maria Cox is a world famous hair-stylist. Most of her business comes from her friends who find that Sweden is a perfect vacation spot.

In Russia, Kev comes across Dianna Taylor (Smith), a happy housewife with four children, who all know shorthand inside-out and backwards. Her next-door neighbor is her sister-in-law, Mary Wise who is a successful executive secretary for the USSR government. Kevin is getting restless, so he goes on to Arabia, where he finds that Janet Downing has just won the world honor of being the only person who knows how to enjoy SILENCE! In Ethiopia, Kev finds none other than Cheryl Heuer, who is visiting all her fellow Twinkies. Before leaving, Kev learns from Cheryl that Maureen Coder is the all-time paper wad shooting champ of South Africa.

Kev makes two more stops in Asia before going back to the States. One stop is in Japan where he finds Sherri Beddoe, a professional cheerleader for the Japan All-Stars. Cathy Dudley is close by. She is carrying on

Nancy Sinatra's tradition of "These boots are made for walking!" down the narrow streets of China. Going down to Australia, Kev finds that Sheryl Creighton is the minister of her church, but in her spare time she tests chairs for breakage-resistance for the Acme Furniture Company.

Sheryl tells Kev that most of his other friends are in the States, so he doesn't hesitate to return. Making his first stop in Hawaii, Kev finds that Kathy Shook is President of the Door-to-Door Sales Promotion, and makes her headquarters in Hawaii. Going over to the Bahamas, Debbie Buck is found to be James Bond's private!!!! secretary. In Florida, Jackie Richardson is teaching her own Math theories in her own personal way! While crossing Florida, Kev finds Nancy Johnston and Mike Jarvis just traveling around. Nancy is a professional shoplifter, and Mike is Toastmaster at all county and state fairs. I'll drink to that, right boys!!!!

Traveling up the Atlantic Coast, Kev runs into Jim Jones in Washington, D.C. Jim is the top candidate for "DOG-CATCHER!" Coming into New York, Kev finds Janice Dudley occupying her time as a poet in Green-wich Village. RaNae Davies has finally got her barber's permit and gets most of her business from her husband.

Moving up into Canada, Kev finds that Gayle Brooks is now full owner of the NO-SWINDLE BROOKS car lot. Business seems to be pretty good. In Alaska, Herb Wooden has his own dog-sled team and sells furs on the side.

Next stop is Los Angeles, California. Here Kev finds Diane Hoveln, still trying to get her RN license at Los Angeles County Hospital. Having completed her 500th unsuccessful operation, Diane is ready to try her luck on her 501st case. Her victim is none other than the famous Tiger Acton, college athlete who was injured in his last game. Will it or will it not be a success? Kev does learn from Greg that Bill Camp is now quarterback for the good ol' Green Bay Packers, but still trying to pass Chemistry!

In Iowa, Kev finds that Jerry Jarboe has taken over as N.F.O. national President, and the organization has doubled its production of car stickers. In St. Louis, Missouri, Mark Dorsey has finally fulfilled his high-school dream of attending St. Louis U. Fact is, he is now Dean of the university. Coming closer to Illinois, Kev finds a familiar Home Ec teacher in Indiana. Linda Soloman specializes in sewing, but in her spare time is seen with a local hog farmer. Now a local hog farmer, Stan Gildersleeve raises 10,000 hogs yearly.

Coming even closer to Armstrong, Kev runs into Pauline Rocker in Oswego, which is now a suburb of Armstrong. Here Pauline is a happily married housewife with four children. In her spare time she is seen racing with a four-on-the-floor----four kids, that is!

When Kev finally reaches Armstrong, he finds Mike Dorsey as the head auctioneer at the Penfield, Chicago Sale Barns and Stockyards. In Collison, Larry Cundiff is leader of that fearful gang, "Collison Wild Angels!"

Kev finds Pam Kissack teaching Successful Housekeeping in Potomac, where she is a happy housewife. Diana Greer has taken over the job of Champaign - Vermilion County Deputy Sheriff from her father-in-law.

Finally Kev reaches his old home spot, Armstrong High, which now has an enrollment of 3,000 students. While he is there, he finds that some of his friends just couldn't leave the old place. After four unsuccessful years at Eastern, Anita Schluter is found behind the scorekeeper's bench at every ATHS ballgame. She has finally reached the top--official scorekeeper's position. Carl Wise, now a Chemistry professor, is assisting "Big Bill" with his nine-class schedule each day. Kev was really surprised when he saw the coach of the Armstrong's All-Star Big Ten Team. To his amazement it was--Coach Steve Willard!!!!

Snapshots at A.T.H.S.

What's your hurry, Stan?

Boy, do those freshman love Mother Goose story books.

FREEZE!!!

Linda, is that a pancake turner?

Mr. Stuby: "Then you take the square root of 10 to find. . . . "

"That's what I say. . . . that's what I say!!
